GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

1. Acceptance of Purchase Order

Agreement by Seller to provide and furnish the materials, parts, and products (“goods”), services or Subcontract Data Requirements Lists (SDRLs) in accordance with the Subcontractor Scope of Work or its commencement of such performance, or acceptance of any payment, shall constitute Seller’s unqualified acceptance of this Purchase Order. Any prices or delivery schedule to which Buyer has not specifically agreed to in writing, or any other terms or conditions proposed by Seller inconsistent with or in addition to the terms and conditions herein, shall be void. Modifications or additions to these Purchase Order terms and conditions must be in writing and signed by Buyer’s Purchasing Representative. These terms and conditions, together with all supplements, documents, exhibits, attachments, and any other agreements incorporated by reference into this Purchase Order, constitute the entire agreement between Buyer and Seller (collectively “the Parties” and singularly a “Party”) with respect to the subject matter of this Purchase Order, and supersede any prior or contemporaneous written or oral agreements pertaining thereto.

2. Shipping Instructions; Risk of Loss

- (a) Seller shall be responsible for ensuring the proper packaging of goods hereunder. Seller shall not charge for packing, crating, freight, local cartage, and/or any other services unless so specified in this Purchase Order.
- (b) Unless otherwise directed by Buyer in writing, Seller shall consolidate shipments on one bill of lading or air waybill when shipping goods on the same day from and to a single location. Seller shall submit all required shipping papers to Buyer prior to final payment. Title to goods furnished under this Purchase Order shall pass to Buyer upon formal acceptance, regardless of when or where Buyer takes physical possession, unless the Purchase Order specifically provides for earlier passage of title.
- (c) When Buyer purchases F.O.B. Origin (“F.O.B. the place of shipment”, as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-319), Seller shall bear the expense of and risk of loss of, or damage to, the goods until Seller delivers the goods to the carrier that Buyer designates. Seller shall not insure or declare a value except when transportation rates are based on “released value,” in which instance Seller shall annotate on the bill of lading the lowest released value provided in applicable tariffs.
- (d) For goods purchased F.O.B. Destination (as “F.O.B. the place of destination” is described in the Uniform Commercial Code Section 2-319) Seller shall bear the expense of transport of, and risk of loss or damage to, the goods to the named place.
- (e) Purchase Order number(s) and the relevant line item number(s) must appear on all correspondence, shipping labels, and shipping documents, including all packing sheets, bills of lading, air waybills, and invoices.

3. Delivery; Notice of Delay; Obsolescence

- (a) On time performance is a material condition of this Purchase Order and failure to perform according to the delivery schedule in this Purchase Order, if unexcused, shall be considered a material breach. Acceptance of late deliveries shall not constitute waiver of this provision. Buyer may refuse or return, at Seller's risk and expense, shipments made in excess of this Purchase Order or in advance of required schedules. Buyer may defer payment on advance deliveries until scheduled delivery dates.

- (b) Seller shall notify Buyer in writing immediately of any actual or potential delay to the performance of this Purchase Order. Such notice shall include a proposed revised schedule, but such notice and proposal or Buyer's receipt or acceptance thereof, shall not constitute a waiver of Buyer's rights and remedies hereunder.
- (c) During performance of this Purchase Order, Seller shall notify Buyer of any planned obsolescence of the goods set out in this Purchase Order.

4. Termination for Convenience (52.249-2)

FAR 52.249-2, Termination for Convenience of the Government (Fixed Price) (APR 2012) is hereby incorporated and made a part hereof by this reference, except for the substitution of the parties in which "Government" means "Buyer", (except that in any express obligation to transfer or assign title to property shall be modified such that "Government" means "Government or Buyer", specifically in subparagraph (b) (8), and at the first occurrence thereof in paragraph (h) , and in paragraph (n) it shall mean "Buyer and the Government"). The substitution of the parties in which "Contracting Officer" means "Buyer's Purchasing Representative", and "Contractor" means "Seller" is applicable to this clause. In paragraph (d) the term "45 days" is changed to "90 days." The term "one-year" in paragraph (e) is changed to "six months." The term "90 days" in paragraph (l) is changed to "45 days."

5. Termination for Default (52.249-9) and (52.2.49-8)

FAR 52.249-8, Default (Fixed-Price Supply and Service) and FAR 52.249-9, Default (Fixed-Price Research and Development) are hereby incorporated and made a part hereof by this reference, except for the substitution of the parties in which "Government" means "Buyer", "Contracting Officer" means "Buyer's Purchasing Representative", and "Contractor" means "Seller" in all paragraphs thereof except in paragraph (c) "Government" means "Government or Buyer". All reference therein to "Disputes" shall mean the "Disputes" clause of this contract. Buyer may terminate this contract in whole or, or in part, for Seller's default in accordance with this clause.

6. Inspection

Buyer has no obligation to inspect goods, and any inspection or failure to inspect shall not affect Buyer's rights or remedies. Any inspection by Seller is solely for Seller's own purposes and creates no obligation or reliance by Buyer. If Buyer rejects goods as nonconforming, the quantities under contract are automatically reduced unless Buyer, in its sole discretion, elects otherwise. Seller shall not replace reduced quantities without Buyer's express written consent. Buyer may, at its option, hold nonconforming goods at Seller's expense and risk. Seller must provide written instructions within ten (10) days of Buyer's notice of rejection. If Seller fails to do so, Buyer may, at its discretion, charge Seller for storage and handling, return or dispose of the goods at Seller's sole expense, and recover all associated costs without liability to Buyer. Payment for goods shall not constitute acceptance, limit or impair any of Buyer's rights or remedies under contract or law, or relieve Seller of any responsibility for nonconformities, including latent defects, warranties, or other obligations.

Buyer is not required to pay for quantities in excess of delivery schedule. Buyer may change the rate of scheduled shipments or directs temporary suspension of scheduled shipments, neither of which shall entitle Seller to a modification of the price for goods or services covered by this contract. Where quantities and/or delivery schedules are not specified, Seller shall deliver goods in such quantities and times as Buyer may direct in subsequent releases.

Premium Shipments: If Seller fails to meet delivery requirements and Buyer requires a more expeditious method of delivery, Seller shall comply and is solely responsible for the cost of the alternate delivery method.

Shipping and Billing: Seller agrees to pack, mark, ship, and route goods per Buyer’s requirements and include any shipping receipts and Bills of Lading. Seller shall have proper information on all paperwork and mark packages so that they are easily identifiable. Seller agrees to accept payment by billed invoice (pay on receipt) unless an invoice is requested by Buyer or agree to electronic funds transfer. Buyer may withhold payment pending receipt of evidence satisfactory to Buyer of the absence of any liens, encumbrances and claims on the goods or services.

8. Force Majeure

Except for a default of Seller’s subcontractor at any tier, neither Buyer nor Seller shall be liable for any failure to perform due to any cause beyond their reasonable control and without their fault or negligence, including acts of God or of the public enemy, acts of the U.S. Government, State, and local Government in its sovereign or contractual capacity (including acts of government related to economic sanctions and embargoes), wars, fires, floods, epidemics, earthquakes, terrorism, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, hurricanes, and unusually severe weather. In the event that causes of the type described above (“Force Majeure”) adversely affect performance of this Purchase Order, the Party whose performance is so affected shall so notify the other Party’s authorized representative in writing. Buyer may reasonably adjust the delivery schedule due to the existence of a Force Majeure.

9. Disputes and Governing Law

- (a) Either Party may submit a dispute to a court of competent jurisdiction provided that the Parties’ senior management representatives have first attempted in good faith to negotiate a resolution for a period of no less than ten (10) business days following written notice from the Party claiming dispute. 10. Remedies

- (a) Buyer may exercise all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including those set forth in Article 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code for both goods and services ordered hereunder. Failure of either Party to enforce any of its rights shall not constitute a waiver of such rights or of any other rights and shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any such provisions, rights or remedies; rather, the same shall remain in full force and effect.
- (b) Buyer shall be entitled at all times to set off any amount owing at any time from Seller to Buyer, against any amount payable at any time by Buyer to Seller.

11. Proprietary Rights

- (a) Unless otherwise expressly set forth in this Purchase Order, all specifications, information, data, drawings, software and other items supplied to Buyer by Seller shall be submitted and protected in accordance with Seller's proprietary markings in accordance with the party's non-disclosure agreement. All such items supplied by Buyer or obtained by Seller in performance of this Purchase Order or paid for by Buyer shall be promptly provided to Buyer on request or upon completion of this Purchase Order.
- (c) Any invention or intellectual property first made or conceived by Seller in the performance of this Purchase Order or which is derived from or based on the use of information supplied by Buyer (collectively, the "Foreground IP") shall be considered to be the property of Buyer. Seller hereby assigns its rights in the Foreground IP to Buyer and shall execute such documents necessary to perfect Buyer's title thereto. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in a contemporaneous or subsequent writing to the contrary or otherwise expressly set forth in this Purchase Order, any work performed pursuant to this Purchase Order which includes any copyright interest shall be considered a "work made for hire". Such access is provided on the condition that prior to such access all such parties have suitable obligations in place protecting Seller’s rights in the computer software or computer software documentation which are in substance consistent with the provisions of this Purchase Order.
- (e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9, applicable U.S. Government Procurement Regulations incorporated into this Purchase Order shall, when applicable, take precedence over any conflicting provision of this Section 9 to the extent that such Regulations so require. The incorporation by reference of such U.S. Government Regulations dealing with subcontractors’ rights in Technical Data, subject inventions, copyrights, software, and similar intellectual property are not intended to, and shall not, unless otherwise required by applicable law, obviate or modify any greater rights which Seller may have previously granted to Buyer pursuant to prior agreements between the Parties.
